

Brazilian, born in Rio de Janeiro, on September 18, 1959, married Identity: 04.301.245-9 IFP (Felix Pacheco Institute), issued on February 04, 1977
CPF (Individual Taxpayer Identifying Number): 599.153.157-91
Rua Deborah Oei Prince 260 Barra da Tijuca, Rio de Janeiro Postal Code 22793-165 Tels.: residential (21) 2431-3834, mobile (21) 99551-7763
e-mail: samir.awad9@hotmail.com

Academic Background:

Graduated in Mechanical Engineering - IME, Rio de Janeiro in 1983
Postgraduate in Petroleum Engineering - Petrobras, Bahia - 1983-1985 Master in Underwater Engineering - Cranfield University, England - 1992-1993 Stanford Executive Program - Stanford University, USA - 2003 Advanced Management Program - Insead, France - 2006

Languages:

English – Fluent

Spanish – Basic

French - Basic

Professional Experience:

Petrobras - DPSE / Macaé - Petroleum Engineer - Offshore (1985 - 1988) Worked as a deep-water underwater well drilling engineer as an operations supervisor, embarked on the Campos and Santos Basin platforms, both on drill-ships as well as on semi-submersible platforms.

Petrobras – DEPER, Rio de Janeiro - Petroleum Engineer (1988 – 1992)

Responsible for the design of subsea equipment for deep-water well drilling and completion and the hiring of remote operation vehicles (ROV) to equip the dynamic positioning drill-ships. A DEPER representative in the deep-water technology development programs (PROCAP).

Petrobras - DEPER / SETAP, Rio de Janeiro - Head of Deep-water Technology Sector (1993-1995)

The scope of this management involved the design of underwater equipment for deep-water well drilling and completion. A DEPER representative in the deep-water technology development programs (PROCAP).

Petrobras – DEPER, Rio de Janeiro - Petroleum Engineer (1995 – 1997)

Responsible for monitoring and supervising the construction of the production facilities of platforms P-25 and P-31 for the Albacora field.

Petrobras – E&P/GECEP, Rio de Janeiro - Petroleum Engineer (1997 – 1998)

Responsible for negotiating partnership and joint operations (JOA) contracts with companies participating in the ANP's "round zero".

Petrobras - E&P, Rio de Janeiro - Head of Company-Owned Drill-Ship Division (1998 - 1999)

The scope of this management involved the management and operation of Petrobras' own onshore and offshore drilling rigs.

BRASPETRO, Rio de Janeiro – Coordinator (1999-2001)

Responsible for participating in the consortiums operated by Texaco, Total and Elf companies in Nigeria and Equatorial Guinea for the Agbami and Akpo fields and determined the feasibility of Petrobras working as an operator in those countries.

BRASPETRO/ANI, Lagos, Nigeria – General Manager of the Nigeria and Equatorial Guinea Business Unit (UN), and Managing Director of Petroleo Brasileiro Nigeria, Lagos (2001-2006) Responsible for setting up the office and structuring of the Business Unit in Nigeria and Equatorial Guinea, managing the participation in consortiums operated by Texaco/Chevron, Total and Elf in Nigeria and Equatorial Guinea, where the production development projects of the fields were approved. Agbami and Akpo, besides being able to operate two offshore blocks (OPL 324 and 315) in international bidding, having as partners the companies Statoil and ExxonMobil.

Petrobras – ANI/INTER-AFE/DEA, Rio de Janeiro – General Manager (2006-2007)

Responsible for managing participation in E&P projects in countries where there were no established business units such as Libya, Iran, Tanzania and Senegal.

Petrobras – ANI/INTER-AFE, Rio de Janeiro – Executive Manager (2007-2009)

Responsible for managing participation in E&P and Downstream projects in up to 17 countries, from northern South America (Peru, Colombia and Venezuela) to the United States, also covering Africa and Asia.

Petrobras Netherlands BV, Rotterdam, Holland – CEO (2009-2016) Responsible for setting up the PNBV office and structuring in Rotterdam, also acting as director of Tupi BV, Guar BV, Papa-Terra BV, Agri BV and Libra BV, merged with Shell, Repsol, Galp, Chevron, Total, CNOOC and CNPC.

Petrobras – E&P, Rio de Janeiro – Petroleum Engineer (2016-2017)

Responsible for negotiating E&P partnership contracts such as joint operations agreements (JOA), bidding agreements (Joint Bidding Agreements - JBA) of the 2017 round of the ANP, Libra unitization agreement, Lifting Agreements), also regularly interacting with PPSA and ANP.

Retired since November 2017, having assisted Petrobras in defending the Company's interests in some arbitration proceedings.
